RUSS DRIVE IN GALICIA

Tears Two Huge Rents and Inflict Terrible Loss to Foes.

LEMBERG IS MENACED

Muscovites Charge Over Heaps of Dead Austrians and Hungarians—Latter Abandon Wounded.

London, June 12—The complete rout of the Austrian armies near Czernowitz was announced here today by the Russian embassy.

Two entire divisions, with all their generals, artillery, and ammunition, were captured.

The Russians are in full pursuit, the Cossacks overrunning the territory at the rear of the fleeing armies.

Petrograd, June 12—The Russians in Volhynia and Galacia have torn two huge rents in the Austrian front and inflicted a loss in men so heavy that it must be counted a step toward the victorious termination of the war.

In some parts of the battle the Austrians were driven back in such disorder that they were compelled to abandon large numbers of wounded men. Thousands of prisoners were rounded up by the cavalry which has got into the Austrian lines of communication. Whole regiments are said to have surrendered en masse.

The number of slain probably reached very large proportions, in consequence of the thoroughness of the Russian artillery preparations.

Some sections of trenches are said to have been transformed into a mush of crumbled concrete, burst sand bags splintered beams, mixed with mutilated corpses and fragments of flesh. At such points not a defender was left who had enough life to offer any resistance.

The Russians charged over heaps of dead foes. The most moderate estimate of the enemy's losses is 150,000, and some estimate make it two-thirds greater. At the minimum computation the Austrians have lost at least a quarter of the total force they had on this front.

London, June 12—A Central News Dispatch from Bucharest states that the governor of Lemberg, Galicia, has been ordered by the AustroHungarian military authorities to prepare to evacuate the city.

Petrograd, June 12—The text of the Russian official statement follows:

"The fierce attacks of our troops are throwing into our hands thousands upon thousands of prisoners and booty of all kinds. the exact estimation of which is as yet impossible.

"For instance, in a single sector on the enemy front we captured 21 searchlights, two convoys, 29 field kitchens, 47 trains of machine guns, 12,000 poods of barbed wire, (a pood is equivalent to 36 pounds), 1,000 concrete planks, 7,000000 cubes of convrete 10,000 poods of coal, enormous depots of amunition and quantities of arms and other material.

"In another sector we captured 30,000 rifle cartridges, 300 boxes of machine gun cartridges, 200 boxes of hand grenades, 1,000 rifles, four machine guns, two range finders and a Norton portable pump for the extration of drinking water.

"The capture of such enormous war materials, prepared by the enemy for various operations, affords proof of how opportune was our coup.

"During Saturday's fighting we took as prisoners ne general, 409 officers and 35,100 soldiers. We also captured 30 guns, 13 machine guns and 5 bomb throwers. This makes the total trophies in the recent operations one general 1,649 officers and more than 106,000 soldiers, and 124 guns, 180 machine guns and 58 bomb throwers.

LUMBER YARD BURNED

Parkersburg W. Va., June 12—Fire destroyed the plant and yards of the Citizens' Lumber Company here. The loss was estimated at $20,000.

IRISH OFFERED HOME RULE.

Proposals of Lloyd George Reported to Irish Party Meeting.

London, June 12.—The official report of the Irish party meeting states that the propsals made by David Lloyd George, which may be regarded as governmental, are:

1. Immediate inauguration of home rule.

2. The introduction in parliament immediately of the amending bill, as a war emergency act.

3. During the period of the war the Irish members are to remain in parliament. The Ulster counties shall be left under government control.

4. Immediately after the war, an imperial conference shall be called with representatives from all the British dominions to consider the government of the empire, including Ireland.

The meeting protested against a continuance of martial law in Ireland and demanded that prisoners undergoing servitude in connection with the uprising in Ireland be treated as prisoners of war.

General dissatisfaction was expressed with regard to the personnel and the method of conducting the inquiry into the Irish situation.

PASSING OF EPIDEMIC

Opening of Sunday and Public Schools Brings Normal Conditions in Alexandria

By the opening of the Sunday schools of Alexandria yesterday morning, the so-called scarlet fever epidemic which has been a bone of contention between the health board, the doctors of the city. and the public generally, for the past ten days, was formally declared to be a thing of the past. No new cases of the mysterious disease, which seemed to be a cross between tonsilitis and scarlitina, have been reported since last Saturday a week and the 30 or more children and adults who have been confined to their homes by the disease are rapidly recovering.

The public schools reopened this morning. In the highest grades the examinations commenced and it is expected that that they will be completed in time to close the schools a week from today. The first three grades of the primary schools will close after today's session.

HANGED HIMSELF AT SEA.

Fireman on Liner Philadelphia a Suicide.

New York, June 12.—The steamship Philadelphia of the American Line, arrived yesterday from Liverpool, with a story of a suicide at sea, and a narrow escape from a collision early yesterday morning. When the steamer was about 90 miles east of Ambrose Lightship, the tramp freighter Rochester suddenly loomed up out of a haze and only quick work upon the part of the Philadelphia's captain averted a crash.

On the way across, T. Matthews, one of the ship's firemen, hanged himself with a sheet in the hospital during the absence of his nurse, after having failed previously in an attempt to end his life.

George H. Crocker, jr., of Fitchburg, Mass., whose skull was fractured when the steamship Sussex was torpedoed in the British Channel, was one of the passengers on the Philadelphia. He was unconscious in a London hospital for four weeks after being injured.

Lithgow Osborne, one of the secretaries of the American Embassy at Berlin, came over with official dispatches. John T. Boifeuillet, a special attache of the American Embassy in London, also was on the Philadelphia.

SAVES DOG BUT KILLS BABY.

Uniontown, Pa., June 12.—Mrs. Bertha Karman, 39, was badly injured, her daughter Bertha aged 1, was killed and Alexander Haffman, jr., aged 15, was bruised when an automobile in which they were riding collided with a telephone pole here yesterday.

The accident was caused by Haffman, who was driving, turning the car suddenly in order to avoid hitting a dog in the street.

"OUSTER" LAW OF VIRGINIA

Statute Will Be Enforced in Some Cities of Commonwealth

LID ON IN RICHMOND

Text of Act as Passed By the Last Session of the General Assembly Being Studied.

Richmond, June 12—Police promises of a rigid enforcement of Sunday and other statues of a more or less obsolete character, beginning with Sunday, were the topic of much debate yesterday and were alluded to in a number of sermons. Ministers generally were disposed to urge upon their people a more strict personal observance of the Sabbath than in recent years has been the case.

The General Assembly amended the Sunday law in only one respect, and that was to legalize the delivery of ice cream on Sunday if made on some other day than the Sabbath. The present situation is caused not by a new Sunday law, for the statute has been on the books since the Acts of 1877 (page 304), with slight revision in 1908. The act that has caused the commotion was offered in the Senate at the recent session of the General Assembly by Senators Mapp, Walker, Saunders and West, and, with other bills championed by the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, it was referred to the Committee on Social and Moral Welfare, of which Senator Mapp was chairman.

The act as passed appears as chapter 451 of the Acts of 1916, and provides:

"That every person holding an office of trust or profit under and by virtue of any of the laws of the State of Virginia, either State, county or municipal, except such officers as are by the Constitution removable only and exclusively by methods other than those provided by this act, who shall knowingly or wilfully misconduct himself in office or who shall knowingly or wilfully neglect to perform any duty enjoined upon said officer by any law of the State of Virginia, or who shall in any public place be in a state of intoxication produced by ardent spirits voluntarily taken, or who shall engage in any form of gambling, or who shall commit any act constituting a violation of any penal statute involving moral turpitude, shall forfeit his office and shall be ousted from office in the manner hereinafter provided.

"Any person, corporation or organization may file with the Circuit Court of the country or Corporation or Hustings Court of the city in which the officer proceeded against resides and holds office a complaint in writing stating with reasonable accuracy and detail the grounds or reasons for the removal of any officer of whom complaint is made, which complaint shall be sworn to by the person or persons or by some officer of the organization making it."

The act says that the Judge shall try the complaint promptly, the case to have "precedence over all other ses on the docket' and "shall be tried forthwith," and continues:

"If upon such trial it shall appear that the officer has failed, neglected or refused to perform his duty under section 1 of this act, he shall be removed from office."

Section 3 provides specially that in any proceeding under this act growing out of the prohibition law, the State Commissioner of Prohibition or some attorney representing his office shall represent the complainant. The act say in this case that the complaint shall not be dismissed, except by consent of the attorney for the Commonwealth, the Commissioner of Prohibition or his representative, and the counsel for the complainant if he has one, or any two of these prosecutors.

Fearing proceedings by political opponents looking to their removal from office under the new ouster law, Mayors of cities in all parts of the State have given directions to the police that all statutes must be strictly enforced.

Newport News, Va., June 12—With the announcement by Mayor B. B. Semmes that he will "put the lid on tight" next Saturday night, people here next Sunday will experience the "bluest" Sunday in the history of the city. Not only will all sale of soda water, cigars and newspapers be prohibited, but the authorities plan to arrest employes engaged in "making" Sunday papers. There also is talk of stopping the operation of street cars on Sunday.

All automobile garages must be closed, and those who own automobiles must either operate them themselves or forego the pleasure of Sunday afternoon outings. Paid choir singers and organists also will come under the ban, it is said. It is expected that the police will be busy next Sunday, as many persons have announced their intention of testing the law and let the courts define what is labor or necessity. In the past the authorities have been liberal in the matter of Sunday selling, and the sudden stoppage will cause untold inconveniences.

Bristol, Va., June 12—Touching the significance of the "ouster" law, which goes into effect in Virginia next Sunday, and the bearing this law may have upon the "blue' law and its enforcement, Mayor George M. Warren said tonight.

"I am not as yet advised as to the nature of the legislature referred to, but I will say that the Bristol authorities will absolutely enforce any and all laws upon the statute books We shall know no other course, and if any of these laws are unpopular and do not accord with public sentiment, it will be up to the Legislature to repeal the same."

Chief of Police S. D. Keller said "We expect to meet the demands of the laws of our State. We cannot do otherwise than enforce any and all laws upon the statute books of Virginia."

The "blue" law has not been enforced here for many years, just as it has not been in other Virginia communities, because public sentiment apparently acquiesced in its non-enforcement.

LOCAL BREVITIES

SMOTHERS BENEATH COAL.

Stumble Carries Man Under Fifty Tons, Dumped from Car.

Trenton, June, 12.—James Palmer, 60 years old, was buried beneath 50 tons of coal at the plant of the United and Globe Rubber Company, yesterday afternoon and smothered to death. While unloading a car of coal Palmer lost his balance and fell in after turning a crank which released the bottom of a car, allowing the coal to drop through.

He was carried down a chute with the rush of coal and completely buried. A half-dozen men worked frantically to save Palmer, but was nearly an hour before his body was uncovered and he was found to be dead.

French C. Simpson was admitted to practise in the Corporation Court today.

ABOUT TO PASS INTO ECLIPSE

Roosevelt Expected to Decline Profferred Nomination.

IS SULKING IN TENT

Former President Has Not Yet Declared That He Will Support Justice Hughes

Chicago, June 12—For the time being all interest centers in the future of the Porgressive party. This is the uppermost factor of the tangled situation arising out of the Republican and Progressive conventions after their adjournment Saturday.

No doubt is felt here that Colonel Roosevelt finally will decline the Bull Moose nomination. In fact, he would have pulled his name down Saturday but for the knowledge that the convention would have forthwith named another candidate. Understanding this, Mr. Roosevelt decided to hold up his answer to his party associates until the convention could adjourn and the opportunity pass for a second nomination.

When it is too late for the Bull Moose to put up another ticket—that is, when it is too late for another convention to be assembled and the enthusiasm of the hour has subsided—Colonel Roosevelt will make a statement declaring that he cannot be a candidate against Mr. Hughes. He will find that the Republican nominee's position on all the issues in which the Colonel has claimed a proprietary interest is sound, and that all Progressives should go to the Republican. support.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 12—Theodore Roosevelt reiterated last night that he is "out of politics."

"I want to tell you newspaper men" he said, "that it's of no use for you to come up here to see me. I will have nothing to say. I will answer no questions, so please don't ask me to. I am out of politics."

If the former president has any plans for the immediate future other than to continue his literary work he has not made them public. His secretary John W. McGrath, is expected to arrive here today from Chicago with a detailed report of the happenings at both the Republican and Progressive conventions.

Colonel Roosevelt attended church services in the village yesterday morning with Mrs. Roosevelt, but remained in seclusion at Sagamore Hill the rest of the day. The telegraph wires Saturday night and yesterday brought a flood of messages to Colonel Roosevelt. It was announced that most of them approved his action in declining to become a candidate upon the Progressive ticket.

While Colonel Roosevelt would not discuss the question yesterday, his intimates considered it altogether unlikely that he would reconsider his conditional refusal to head a third ticket.

He has not yet made it clear whether or not he will support the candidacy of Mr. Hughes.

GHOULS ROB TOMB FOR GEMS.

Fail to Get $100,000 in Jewels Buried With Famous Beauty.

Paris, June 12.—Seeking a marvelous emerald necklace and other jewels worth $100,000 ghouls Saturday violated for the second time the tomb of Ginette Lantelme, the famous beauty and wife of the late Alfred Edwards, who was drowned in 1910 while traveling in a houseboat on the Rhin.

Although the oak lid of the leaden shell was ripped off, the robbers left empty-handed, the jewels having been removed from the Pere la Chaise Cemetery at the end of 1911, after the first attempt to rob the gem-adorned remains of Mme. Lantelme.

STEAM-DRIVEN SEA 'PLANES

Navy Experiments Believed Near to Solving Stability Problem

Washington, D. C., June 12—Navy Department experiments indicate that steam driven seaplanes may solve the motor-problem of air navigation. Many officers believe that only the question of getting the weight of the steam plant down to the lowest possible figure remains to be answered before a steamer of the air is constructed and tried out.

Experimental work was begun many months ago, and an improvised plant, consisting of a boiler similar to those used in steam automobiles and a compact steam turbine, has been thoroughly tested. Those in charge of the work will not discuss it further than to say that they are very hopeful of a successful outcome.

Steam equipment would guarantee constancy of power, upon which aeroplanes depend for stability. Most accidents to aviators, it is pointed out, have been due to failure of motors.

Steam turbines also would provide power far in excess of anything now obtainable with gasoline engines, it is said, a factor vital to the navy, since seaplanes are much heavier than aeroplanes for service over land.

TOMORROW'S ELECTION

Opposition to Democratic Nominees in Fourth Ward and Contest in Second

Tomorrow's election for city offices promises to be a quiet affair, although there is opposition to the Democratic ticket in the fourth ward and a contest is promised in the second ward where the Democratic nominee, R. D. Brumback, has died since the primary was held. In the fourth ward Thomas Chauncey, who was formerly a member of council and who was president of the Crupper Club which supported the candidacy of Joseph L. Crupper, the Republican candidate in the congressional election two years ago, is running against Councilmen Bryan and Ballenger, the incumbents who were renominated by the Democrats. Mr. Chauncey participated in the primary, but bolted the results of that election.

In the second ward Jerome Kaufmann, who was a candidate in the primary, but who ran third when R. D. Brumback and Henry K. Field were nominated, is seeking election to take the place of Brumback. Andrew D. Deeton has announced his candidacy also to succeed Brumback.

The following is the complete ticket: For mayor, Thomas A. Fisher; for aldermen, first ward, F. F. Marbury; second ward W. W. Ballenger; third ward, John T. Harrison; fourth ward, James B. Fitzgerald; for councilmen, first ward, Howard W. Smith; and George H. Evans; second ward, Henry K. Field, Jerome Kaufmann and A. D. Deeton; third ward, August Pohl and H. R. Burke; fourth ward, Albert Bryan, C. S. Ballenger and Thomas Chauncey.

Polls will open tomorrow at 4:38 o'clock and close at 7:22. The saloons of the city will close this afternoon at 6 o'clock and remain closed until Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock.

Judges and clerks named by the city electorial board follows:

BRYAN CAUSES SOME ANXIETY

May Give Trouble When Convention Assembles in St. Louis

HE IS NOT A DELEGATE

Peace, Prosperity and Preparedness to Be the Slogan of the Democratic Convention.

St. Louis, Mo., June 12—Forerunners of the 1,092 delegates who are to nominate President Wilson and Vice President Marshall at the Democratic National Convention this week moved into St. Louis with the slogan of "Peace, Prosperity and Preparedness." The convention holds its first session at noon Wednesday.

A contest over six seats from the District of Columbia in the convention will be taken up at a meeting of the Democratic National Committee today. The committee will also decide two contested seats on the national committee, one from Texas and one from the District of Columbia. Thomas Love is contesting the seat of William Poindexter, of Texas, and four Democratic clubs in Washington, D. C. are contesting the selection of John F. Costello as committeeman.

Everyone of the delegates to the convention either is instructed for or committed to the renomination of President Wilson and the vast majority of them, according to many national committeemen, are ready to cename Vice President Marshall. A few votes are expected to be cast for some favorite sons for the vice presidential place, but the party leaders names may be withdrawn and that Marshall's renomination, like that of President Wilson, will be made by acclamation.

"We are here to ratify the desire of the Democratic party," said National Chairman McCombs last night. "There might be a fight if we could hold the convention in Europe. It's a certainty there will be no fight here. The program is all arranged and there should be no hitch."

Senator William J. Stone, of Missouri, arrived last night, bringing what was said to be a draft of the party platform, with its main planks sketched in detail by President Wilson. Senator Stone is slated to be chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, and it is understood that he and the members of the committee will put President Wilson's ideas on certain planks in written form and adopt other planks bearing on preparedness and foreign policy just as they have been written by the President.

Senator Stone has had several conferences with President Wilson, and as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, has intimate knowledge of President Wilson's views on party policy.

Women suffragists who led the fight for a suffrage plank in the Republican platform are ready to wage a similar campaign for a suffrage plank in the Democratic platform. Members on the committee from the suffrage states are expected to lend their aid.

The leaders now here do not expect any sustained fight for a prohibition plank.

There were unconfirmed reports last night that William J. Bryan, though not a delegate, would find some way to precipitate a fight on the preparedness plank, but none of his friends here were in a position to say how he might touch on the issue in a convention in which he is not a delegate. Mr. Bryan will only be able to address the convention with the unanimous consent of its 1,092 delegates, and he may not occupy a seat on the floor of the convention unless both a delegate and his alternate retire and give him their proxy.

Heavy Rains and Hail Keep Temperature Low For This Time of Year

There were heavy rains Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings in this city and neighborhood. In Fairfax county near Alexandria considerable hail fell, and people who arrived here from portions of Albermarle county report passing through hail storms. While rain was falling in torrents in Alexandria early Saturday night and the atmosphere was charged with electricity, hail was pelting people in Washington, and parts of Maryland. The storm was severe in the capital city, and while it was in progress lightning struck in several places. No one was hurt, however, nor was the damage serious. The temperature hereabout this morning was akin to that of early fall, and fog hung over the river. The Weather Bureau announces that warmer weather is in transitu.

Many people would like to know whether the arctic year of 1816 is to be repeated in 1916. A vegetarian's rations would be hard to find, if there were to be no summer in 1916. Twenty years ago a newspaper published an interview with an aged man, James Winchester, who was 14 years old when his nate State of Vermont was devasted by a snowstorm, in the summer of the year after Waterloo saw Napoleon's star go down in blackest night and peace return to war wasted Europe. The whole year of 1816, with brief intervals of tepidity, was cold and comfortless. On June 17 snow fell to a depth of ten inches in Vermont, and in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania it was three inches deep. "That storm of June 17, said James Winchester, "was one of the severest I ever saw, even in the depth of winter, in that locality of severe snows." A wind, bitter cold, came out of the north and piled the snow in deep drifts. An uncle of James Winchester who started out in the whirl of flakes to herd some sheep in a distant pasture, lost his way, and three days afterward a searching party found him dead in a great drift, There was no summer that year. Describing the terrible season, Mr. Winchester said:

"The wind during June, July and August of 1816 was continuously from the north, and it blew fiercely and cold. Farmers wore heavy overcoats and mittens while about their work every day during those months. There was but little use of planting anything; nothing grew to speak of, but they did plant corn as usual and planted with mittens on. July was colder than June, and August was colder than July. Ice half an inch thick formed in July, but in August it froze an inch and more. There was a heavy snowstorm on August 30.

CHRIST COMING AGAIN

Evangelist Gibson Delivers Address Before Large Congregation Last Night.

Evangelist F. E. Gibson's theme at the Gospel tent on north Washington street last night was instructive and interesting, and he was listened to with close attention. The speaker read several texts of scripture to substantiate his assertions in regard to the second coming of Christ, which, he said, will bring an end to all war and bloodshed, sorrow and misery which prevails throughout most of the world today.

Among the passages he read from the Bible were the following:

"If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am there ye may be also."

"This same Jesus which is taken up from among you into heaven shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven."

"Behold he cometh with clouds and every eye shall see him, and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him."

"When the Son of Man shall come in his glory and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory."

The tent is situated on the lot formerly occupied by the school conducted by the late John S. Blackburn, on Washington street, near Cameron. Is beautifully decorated and the seats are nicely arranged and comfortable.

The subject tonight will be "The Signs of Christ's Second Coming in the Heavens and on the Earth." The public is cordially invited.

40 HOURS' OF DEVOTION

Impressive Services in St. Mary's Church Witnessed By Large Congregation

At the services held last night in St. Mary's Catholic Church in connection with the observance of the "forty hours" devotions, the Rev. Dr. Lewis J. O'Hern, of the Catholic University of America, delivered a sermon. All of the services yesterday were attended by capacity congregations, the number of worshipers at the 11 o'clock mass being unusually large. At this service the Rev. Dr. O'Hern was the celebrant, the Rev. L. F. Kelly, assistant pastor of St. Mary's, the deacon, and the Rev. Louis Smet, pastor of St. Mary's, the sub-deacon.

Following the celebration of the mass there was a procession of the most blessed sacrament in which the three officiating priests at the mass took part, together with twenty-five accolytes and fifty little girls. The girls were dressed in white with crowns of flowers and carried baskets of flowers which were strewn along the ailses of the church.

HUGHES AND FAIRBANKS.

The Republican National Convention in Chicago Saturday nominated Charles E. Hughes, for President and Charles W. Fairbanks for Vice President of the United States. Both these gentlemen undoubtedly enjoy the confidence of the people of the country, but what good would result should a majority of the voters cast their ballots for them cannot be divided at present. It has during the past year been admitted by democrats and republicans alike that Woodrow Wilson was the right man in the right place while the nation was confronted by some of the most momentous issues that have been sprung upon it since its birth. Why the people should refuse to let well enough alone at a time when no experiments should be tried is hard to tell.

Theodore Roosevelt and his progressive dreams have entered into an eclipse. That individual, who has been to the Republicans what William Jennings Bryan still is to the democrats, announces that he is out of politics. This is proving a great relief to the many who have long age sickened of his pretensions. The party he unwisely organized four years ago, however, may insist upon placing a third candidate in the field, in which event whatever chances the orginal organization have will be destroyed as they were in 1912.

The Democrats will undoubtedly nominate Woodrow Wilson and Vice President Marshall, as they did four years ago, and while some members of the party may be anxious from the fact that the Progressives are liable to fall into the ranks with the party they formerly wrecked, the great mass of the people of the country are ready to vote their affirmation of the present administration which has guided the ship of state through the most treacherous breakers it has ever encountered.

Justice Hughes who had been silent until nomina d Saturday, has come out in a statement which will fail to appeal to the great mass of Americans. He makes an attack upon President Wilson, which manifests bad taste from the outset. The people of the country would like to know what he would have done during the past year had he been President. Mr. Wilson's record will be as Gibraltar against all his adversaries may urge, and his selection for another term can be safely assured.

WAR TO THE BITTER END.

Germany's Chancellor has declared for war to the bitter end unless the Allies accept the interpretation of the war map that Germany may choose to make and negotiate for a close of the war upon the basis. Thus the peace feelers of a few weeks ago are withdrawn and Berlin no longer hints at an early close of the strife. The Allies have never believed the foe had any real intentions to arrive at a compromise, and knew that if a peace council were called it would witness Germany claiming everything in sight.

Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg is not alone in offering defiance. The resumption of the hatred of England againt Germany has been marked by the expressions of relentless purpose upon the part of England. Lloyd George, than whom there is no more responsible spokesman for his country, in a statement to the editor of the London Daily Chronicle, says:

"I have never despaired of victory. The task will be hard, but the end is sure. It is Germany's military force that we must beat. It is not enough to force her to submission by economic pressure. A peace imposed on Germany, exhausted in food and materials only, would not be durable. It would be a moral defeat for the Allies. The Germans could say they had beaten us in battle and made peace only because we had starved their women and children. That peace we don't want. Only a crushing military victory will bring the peace for which the Allies are fighting, and of which Germany will understand the meaning. That victory we shall have; it will be complete and final."

So the Boeman lock their horns, with Russia not talking, but doing deeds of tremendous significance upon the east side, and France still exemplifying the utmost nobility in defense of its territory that was invaded under the veriest pretext.

RUSSIAN ARMY "COMES BACK"

That Russia has "come back" with a vengeance is the natural conclusion of all who are following the war news from the eastern front where the activities of the Russians since the spring drive began, have been productive of continual successes, resulting in the capture of upward of nearly one hundred thousand prisoners and quantities of heavy guns and munitions. The Richmond Journal, in calling attention to these facts says it seems hardly possible that only a year ago the Germans under Field Marshall Hindenburg inflicted on the Russians what was heralded as an overwhelming defeat, costing them Poland, Courland, more than a million men, quantities of stores and practically all their advanced fortified defenses clear to the Rumanian fronties. But at the time the public was informed that, although beaten the Russian army was not crushed; that the loss of Poland could be borne with equanimity so long as the masterly retreat of Grand Duke Nicholas had preserved to their country the soldiers of the Czar. Evidently, the eccniums bestowed the grand duke for his strategy were well merited. The heavy guns whose absence he so deplored are not lacking in the operations of the reorganized army, for the Russian successes are said to be largely due to the skillful and unprecedented use of artillery, surpassing in intensity any previous efforts on either side on the east front. With the recapture of Lutsk, the apex of a triangle of fortresses in Volhynia, a new invasion of Galicia from the north is threatened. Dubno is the next objective and should that fortress fall, together with Rovno, all five Austrian armies will be compelled to fall back in an effort to save Lemberg, which, with the abandonment of the Volhynian fortress, will be seriously menaced. This extraordinary reversal of conditions, following so soon after the great German campaign on the east front, is without precedent in history, and Russia alone, with her unlimited numbers of soldiers, could have done what is now being witnessed. What will it avail Germany if Verdun falls only to find the Austro-Hungary army in retreat and in danger of annihilation? Will she again go to the rescue of her ally? And what if the Russian army is temporarily embarrassed, so that it withdraws? It is simply a question of time when it returns more tenacious, more insistent, more terrible in its strength of numbers than ever before. Truly, Germany has prodigious problems before her that might well cause the stoutest nation to quail.

POSITION OF THE PROGRESSIVES.

The nomination of Mr. Hughes by the Republican Convention and Colonel Roosevelt's conditional declination of the Progressive nomination seem to leave the field free for a straight-out fight between the two old parties. As a contemporary suggests, if the Progressives should acquiesce in the situation that has been created by the stale, flat and impotent conclusion of their attempt to secure reunion with a big R, it by no means follows that they will manifest any great enthusiasm and activity in the campaign. It seems more than probable that a very considerable proportion of them, at least, will decline to co-operate with their old Republican associates, and that some of them may prove "irreconcilables" whom the Colonel himself cannot control. In fact, Mr. Roosevelt cannot lay the spirit which he called into existence in 1912, and to which he has been giving fresh fire and strength during the last six months. He has created a new party and he cannot uncreate it by a word. If he will not lead it, another man may be found who will. He was possibly not conscious in 1912 how far-reaching would be the effect of the movement which he organized against the Republican machine. He may not see even now how impossible it is for him to recall the forces to which his candidacy then gave birth. They are, in truth, irrevocable, and if he does not go with them, they will continue their development under other auspices. They cannot merge, with the Republican party, because the Republican party does not represent the ideals and purposes of the Progressives. Whatever they do in this campaign, whether they sulk in their tents, or whether they finally determine to make an open fight for the purpose of preserving their organization and vindicating their principles, they have come to stay.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Announcement of Earl Kitchener's successor will be made before the British parliament reassembles on June 20. Present indications point to David Lloyd George, the present minister of munitions, as new secretary for war.

The government yacht, Mayflower, has arrived and anchored in the North River waiting for President and Mrs. Wilson, who will arrive in New York tonight. After they go on board the yacht will proceed to West Point.

The Official Press Bureau in London last night issued the following statement: "The total German official casualties are 734,412 killed, 146,655 prisoners, 191,857 missing, 1,851,652 wounded. This is not the British estimate," concludes the press bureau.

The British cruiser Hampshire, on which Field Marshal Earl Kitchener and members of his staff were lost, was sunk by a mine, it is officially announced. All hope has been abandoned for all save the 12 men from the Hampshire who were washed ashore on a raft.

Austro-Hungarian troops 12,000 strong on Saturday attacked in massed formation the Italian positions on Monte Lemirla, but were repulsed with heavy losses, The Italian offensive recently started between the Adige River and Brenta, the statement adds, is making progress at several points.

Charles Evans Hughes, Republican nominee for President, will be a marcher in the preparedness parade Wednesday, if he is in Washington. This was declared yesterday by Lawrence H. Green, his private secretary. Mr. Hughes left for New York and probably will return in time for the parade.

The motor car of Abel V. Ezeyza, ran over and crushed Leroy Shepherd, a four year old colored child, at the corner of Twentieth and L streets northwest Washington, early yesterday morning. The child was rushed to Emergency Hospital in Ezeyza's car, where he died of a fractured skull and internal injuries in less than half an hour.

Three German infantry attacks against the French trenches on Hill No. 304 and the positions east of that elevation, in the Verdun sector, were completely checked Saturday night by the French troops. Two German detachments penetrated the French advanced trenches in the forest of Apremont, southeast of St. Mihiel, the statement adds but were later ejected.

Five armed and mounted Mexicans rode across the Rio Grande in the suburbs of El Paso, yesterday afternoon, shoved pistols into the faces of the members of a picnic party on the American side, cursed them, and after recrossing to the Mexican side fired volleys at the picnic party. No one was hit. Mexican bandits raided the ranch of T. A. Coleman, near Hidalgo, in Hidalgo county, Saturday night, and drove off eighty horses.

Being spanked during an initiation with barrel staves between which dynamite caps were placed, with the result that he was under the care of physician for days, is worth $100 to John Lasut, of Manifold, near Washington, in the opinion of a jury that heard the evidence. Lasut was being introduced into the mysteries of the Order of Owls when the stunt was put on at his expense. Upon the advice of counsel he brought a suit for damages.

Mrs. Will Krouse, whose husband, was killed in a pistol duel with Dr. Henry Buck in front of the Buck home, has been taken to jail at Oberlin, La. The woman admits, officials declare, that she and her husband planned revenge for an alleged slanderous remark made in an anonymous letter to her husband more than three years ago. Dr. Buck denies knowledge of the letter. Mr. and Mrs. Krouse motored from their home near Lake Charles to Kinder, nearly 40 miles, to Dr. Buck's home. The woman was dressed in man's clothing and both she and her husband wore false mustaches, officials say. They told Dr. Buck they had come to take him to attend a sick person. He recognized them, returned to his home ostensibly to get his medicine case, and obtained a pistol.

WASHINGTON MAN SAYS, "HIS MUSCLES WERE TIED IN KNOT"

That is exactly the Way My Rheumatism Acted, Says W. F. Kiter

"This is really the first medicine I've ever taken that does just what is claimed for it" said Mr. W. F. Kiter, of 1104 E. Street southwest, the well known contractor, "I am 84 years old and have suffered many years with rheumatism. The doctors said it was muscular rheumatism and my muscles seemed like they were tied in a knot. In addition to the rheumatism I had headaches, was bilious and appetite poor. Someone persuaded me to take Dreco so I got a bottle and it is certainly making a new man of men. I eat and sleep as I havn't in years. Headaches bother me no more and the rheumatism is vastly better. Am now on my second bottle and I am anticipating a complete recovery from it."

Dreco, the combination root and herb medicine is sold in Alexandria by Allen's Drug store.

VIRGINIA NEWS

One man was killed and three others seriously injured Saturday near Kelling in the Danville neighborhood, when a boiler generating power for a feed-cutting machine on Major Wilkinson's farm blew up, with a roar which was heard for miles, Edward Simmons, a farm hand, was killed when a section of the boiler crushed his head.

John Coffman, 62 years old, was crushed to death Saturday near Bridgewater, Rockingham county, by a heavy piece of timber while helping to raise a barn on the farm of Luther Hollen. A number of men were raising aloft an oak piece, 27 feet long and nearly a foot thick, when it slipped striking Mr. Coffman, crushing his hip and leg, and also fracturing his right leg.

Laurence H. Green, secretary to Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President, is a Virginia boy, having been born 29 years ago at Manassas. He went to Washington with his parents when he was only a few years old. He is a graduate of Georgetown University Law School, and was appointed Justice Hughes' secretary shortly after the latter was made a member of the Supreme Court.

Joseph R. Burroughs, colored, an ardent baseball fan, dropped dead a short distance from the ball grounds, in Petersburg, immediately after the game between Hopewell and Petersburg, yesterday afternoon. He had been rooting loudly for the home team and at the beginning of the ninth inning complained of being ill. He was take from the park by friends and placed under a tree, where he died before medical assistance could be summoned. Heart disease, caused by excitement, was the coroner's view regarding the death.

RIDES STURGEON TO DEATH.

Lad Whips 70-Pound Fish in Catch-as-Catch-Can Fight.

Appleton, Wis., June 12.—Game wardens have been foiled by Hiram Beveridge, a youth 18 years old, who beat the State law against catching sturgeon by climbing upon the back of a six-foot specimen and riding him to death around a shallow pool.

Hiram's knees were scraped raw and his legs cut, when the fish tried to wipe him off his back against the shallow sides of the pool, but he hung on and finally pounded the fish over the head with a stone until it was either stunned by the stone or died of over-exertion.

The water in Fox River has been low of late and Hiram saw a big sturgeon in a shallow pool below the John street dam. He tried to catch it by the tail, but failed. Then he took the dare of trying to ride it. When he landed on the back of the fish he found he had caught a tartar. It was worse than riding a bucking broncho, but he seized a stone when the fish was floundering in shallow water. The game wardens have decided that he did not "catch" the fish, but whipped it in a fight. It provided 70 pounds of meat.

KITCHENER PUT IN BOAT

Frail Craft Swamped After Leaving The Hampshire

Aberdeen, Scotland, June 12—The British cruiser Hampshire was seen to be afire before she sank off the Orkney Islands while carrying Earl Kitchener, the British war minister, to Russia, according to statements of men on trawlers and steamers arriving here from the Orkneys. The disaster occurred last Monday night, only an hour after Earl Kitchener and members of his staff had embarked on the cruiser at the extreme north of Scotland.

One trawler reported that the warship appeared to have been blown up, although no sound of an explosion was heard, probably on account of the terrific storm that was raging. Twenty minutes after she was seen in distress and on fire the Hampshire sank between Harwick Head and Brough of Birsay off the western coast of the mainland of the Orkneys.

The raft from the cruiser which was flung ashore with twelve men from the Hampshire clinging to it was discovered by a policeman who was searching along the rocky and desolate coast. The men were battered and exhausted. A few of them murmured "Kitchener was on board" and then fell asleep. About eighty bodies were found along the cliffs many of them still warm.

In their terrific battle with the sea, the clothing of some of the men had been torn from their bodies. Their hands and feet had been mutilated in desperate efforts to climb the cliffs.

According to the reports, Earl Kitchener and the members of his staff were placed in one of the ship's boats which got clear of the wreck but was swamped in the terrific sea that was running.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY IN RESCUE.

Scranton, Pa., June 12.—Attempting to rescue her five-year-old daughter, Marian, from in front of a fast train on the Delaware and Hudson Railroad at Jermyn, Mrs. Samuel Crush rushed on the tracks, carrying in her arms her 2-year old daughter, Anna.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.
